Table of contents

Foreword		ix
Avant-propos		xi
Preface		xiii
Préface		xv
Introduction		xvii
Introduction		xxxiv
Contributors/Contibuteurs		lii

Part I: Rethinking the right to development: Normative foundations, governance and implementation

1	The right to development at a constitutional moment: What could the Draft Covenant change? Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga	3
2	Forty years of the Declaration on the Right to Development: From normative commitments to implementation Muyamba Mangu	35
3	Beyond article 22 of the African Charter: The Draft Convention on the Right to Development as a normative reinforcement for the right to development in Africa Khothalang Moseli	70
4	Beyond recognition: Human rights impact assessment as an operational framework for the right to development Patrice Vahard	99
5	Anti-corruption frameworks as an implementation vehicle: Exploring the right to development as a normative lens for UNCAC and AUCPCC Anzanilufuno Munyai & Avitus A Agbor	131
6	The right to participation and the enjoyment of the right to development in South Africa: Some reflections Serges Djoyou Kamga	161

7 The promise of the right to development: Advocacy as an enabler of the enforcement of the right to development in South Africa 182
Mofihli Teleki

8 The right to development, the fulfilled life and the humanism of praxis: Contributions from Latin America 212
Miguel Ángel Castañeda Barahona

9 From the revolutionary archive: A psychoanalytical reframing of the right to development 242
Isaac Shai & Sivuyile Shai

10 Exploring the concept of self-inflicted poverty through the theory of ambivalence as an impediment to the realisation of the right to development in Africa 264
Clotaire Saah Nengou

11 Advancing African children's rights to development through Agenda 2063: From continental aspirations to meaningful implementation 294
Megha Nkem

12 The right to development as a protective framework for internally displaced children: Challenges and prospects in Africa 322
Rosecana Galadima Ankama

13 Le droit au développement et les politiques publiques fondées sur les droits humains en Afrique 357
Rokhaya Diagne & Fatou Bintou Niang

Part II: Development, resources, environment and global economic transformation

14 From extraction to a possible redemption: Reclaiming Africa's right to development in an era of illicit flows, debt crises and global financial inequity 393
Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga

15 Beyond extraction: Reimagining the right to development through critical minerals governance, climate justice and developmental constitutionalism 424
Mohamed A Koroma

16 Defending the right to development in resource-rich Africa: Human rights defenders, critical minerals, and trafficking in Angola and the Democratic Republic of the Congo 449
Marianne Séverin, Elena Scaccia & Marta Dias Sintra

17 The Declaration on the Right to Development at 40: Africa's 'infrastructural turn' 476
Dorcas Basimanyane

18 Strengthening the right to development through environmental governance principles during and post-conflict recovery: A multi-stakeholder cooperation framework for effective implementation 522
YB Belete & MT Gebregiorgs

19 The consequences of environmental, social and governance practices within the European Union for the right to development in the Global South 557
Serges Djoyou Kamga & Tom Zwart

20 Environmental justice beyond anthropocentrism: A case for the recognition of the Ogoni river, Lake Bogoria, the Monchongoi forest and similar natural entities as rights holders under the African Charter on Human and Peoples' Rights 584
Oluwatosin Senami Adegun

21 Droit au développement et nouveau paradigme africain de transformation des minerais critiques de la transition énergétique : Cas d'étude de la RDC 618
Patrice Vahard

22 Les minéraux critiques : Transition énergétique, droits humains et droit au développement en Afrique 654
Marley Louvois Bajoun Kemadjou

23 Le droit au développement, le droit à un environnement sain et les objectifs de développement durable dans un contexte de résurgence du concept de patrimoine commun de l'humanité 685
Pierre-François Mercure

24 La ZLECAF à l'épreuve du droit au développement : Analyse du commerce transfrontalier du Safou 715
Soka Armelle Ngoutane Peyou

25 De la libéralisation des échanges aux devoirs de développement : la ZLECAf peut-elle opérationnaliser le droit au développement par la diligence raisonnable des entreprises ? 733
Nitish Monebhurrun

26 Considérations stratégiques du droit au développement et de la coopération Sud-Sud dans l'essor des relations Chine-Afrique 761
Christophe Dongmo

Part III: The right to development in an era of social justice and artificial intelligence

27 Access to food and the right to development: Challenges to the realisation of article 8 of the 1986 Declaration in the Brazilian context 795
Cristiane Derani, Tuana Paula Lavall & Gabriel Pedroza Bezerra Ribeiro

28 Expanding pathways for the right to development in the context of transitional justice 816
Tonny Raymond Kirabira & Yemserach Legesse Hailu

29 The right to development through peace building within the Anglophone conflict in Cameroon: Between national and externally driven reconstruction processes 853
Sakah Bernard Nsaidzedze & Wankuy Theodore Lontum

30 From constitutional capture to military rule in Francophone Africa: Rethinking the legitimacy paradox of unconstitutional changes of government through the right to development 886
Gerard Emmanuel Kamdem Kamga

31 Criminal accountability for intimate partner violence and the right to development: A comparative analysis of Nigeria and Italy 921
HB Ojibara, AC Onuora-Oguno & MM Salvadori

32 Gouvernance foncière inclusive au Nord-Cameroun : Les technologies géospatiales au service des groupes marginalisés et des populations vulnérables au regard du droit au développement 947
Simon Pierre Petnga Nyamen

33 Le droit au développement à l'épreuve de la crise du financement de l'asile en Afrique subsaharienne : Repenser le nexus asile-humanitaire-développement 977
Catherine Patricia Ondo

34 The right to work in the age of artificial intelligence: Examining the right to development under the African Charter as a framework for protecting workers from job displacement 1002
Shirley Genga

35 Decolonising the algorithmic state: The right to development as a pan-African framework for artificial intelligence-driven governance in Zimbabwe 1025
Bismark Mutizwa & Serges Djoyou Kamga

36 From centralised artificial intelligence to democratic systems: African Union-aligned pathways for economic justice and the right to development 1059
Elisabeth Achancho Etagha