

APPLICATION FOR PUBLICATION

PULP is an independent, non-profit press based in the Centre for Human Rights (CHR) at the Faculty of Law, University of Pretoria. PULP increases access to innovative, high quality and peer-reviewed texts with a focus on human rights and other aspects of public international law, especially in Africa.

PULP has published more than 350 books and publishes seven open-access online law journals. PULP annually awards the Christof Heyns Memorial Thesis Award. PULP is a registered publisher with the Publishers Association of SA (PASA), the largest publishing industry body in South Africa, and all material goes through strict peer reviews to ensure accreditation and high-quality output. Publications are submitted to an international body of advisors for approval. Manuscripts should conform to PULP's house style.

PULP will only consider doctoral theses once they have already been adapted to book form (eg 'in this thesis I...') etc taken out and the structure adapted. A copy of the examiner's reports needs to be submitted together with the manuscript and application.
